Non-Discrimination Policy

At Fatima Jinnah Medical University, we value each employee and applicant as individuals with unique qualities, and we value the range of experiences they can offer to our organization. For this reason, we maintain a strict non-discrimination policy. Fatima Jinnah Medical University has a policy and commitment not to discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, or religion.

As part of its commitment to an Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, FJMU prohibits discrimination in terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, or religion.

Harassment or intimidation of faculty, staff, or students because of race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental impairment, or religion is expressly prohibited and may result in termination. FJMU is committed to a work environment free of such harassment and does not tolerate hostility toward faculty members.
